

First Joint Congress on Intelligent and Fuzzy Systems

7th Iranian Conference on Fuzzy Systems and

8th Conference on Intelligent Systems

August 29-31, 2007

Ferdowsi University of Mashhad, Mashhad, Iran

The congress aims to provide a unique meeting opportunity for all of the Iranian and international academics as well as students to present their original research papers in the two diverse fields of fuzzy and intelligent systems as well as their innovative applications. This is the first joint gathering of the two scientific societies with the goal to foster collaboration among the researchers in the fields.

Areas of interest include, but are not limited to:

Fuzzy Theory and Control, Fuzzy Mathematics and Statistics, Artificial Neural Networks, Evolutionary Strategies, Evolutionary Programming, Genetic Algorithms, Genetic Programming, Fuzzy and Neural Modeling, Reinforcement Learning, Ant Algorithms, Soft Computing, Machine Learning, Soft computing and Information Technology, Cognitive Modeling, Expert Systems, Multi Agent Systems,

As well as applications in,

Image Processing, Robotics, Biomedical Engineering, Internet and Natural Language Processing, Management Science, Defense Industry, Agriculture, Economics, Social Sciences, Operations Research as well as others.

Paper Submission

Papers should be submitted electronically through the congress web site. The conference accepts papers in two categories:

Regular Track: All contributors are eligible to submit their full papers in this category. Submitted papers in this track will be reviewed by three reviewers and are expected to be of highest quality.

Student Track: Main contributors should be students to be eligible for paper submission in this category. The student's instructor/faculty advisor should approve the paper through a recommendation letter to the conference.

Format of Papers: Submitted papers should follow the conference style as explained on our website, <http://isfs.um.ac.ir>

All submissions should include a paper submission form that includes information about paper type/category, keywords as well as authors' contact information.
